

Enclave is a Calgary, Canada based, applied technology company that is disrupting conventional home construction.

Enclave employs digital online technologies to impact the marketing, presales, standardization product quality, space functionality, building methodology, materials, sustainability and total cost of ownership of a entire home site or micro community.

mission

To transform housing through innovation, while enabling people to live their best lives.

vision

$100 million in revenue by 2025 with an established, repeatable, scalable, standardized and digitally enhanced online housing and micro community development

key drivers

Demand for housing lower cost / rapid build options maturity of new digital technologies planetary health policy traction core product and services

- Multifunctional homes
- Sustainability/NetZero
- Smart technology
- Essential living
- Architectural design
- Low/no maintenance

leadership

Don Sandford
Real estate development, land acquisition, property management, subdivision infrastructure contracting, approvals, marketing, business development and sales.

Dale Bateman
Innovative rapid build architectural design modular, podular and container development and construction collaborators

Kumlin Sullivan | Alex Dorval Creative | Traced Method | Board marker | WSP | Entuitive | Ekosi Titan Walls | Ezassi | Foothills Construction | Create | Melcher Studios